Blended Learning in a New World
Introductions
Introductions

Dr. Dylan Barth
Senior Teaching and Learning Consultant
University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
Introductions

Dr. Dylan Barth
Senior Teaching and Learning Consultant
University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Dr. Nicole Weber
Former Director, Learning Technology
University of Wisconsin-Whitewater
What Happened?
Black Swan Event
Quick Pivot to Online
Enrollment Decline
Look in the Mirror
Old Dogs, New Tricks
Antifragile
What additional challenges and opportunities does higher education face in the coming years as a result of the pandemic?

Please post your responses in the chat.
What Now?
Strategic Pivot to Blended
Best of Both Worlds
Better Teaching in All Modes
Labs, Studios, & Performances
Recruitment and Graduation
Diverse Student Experiences
Achievement Gaps
How do you see blended learning addressing the many challenges facing us in higher education as a result of the pandemic?

Please post your responses in the chat.
What Approaches?
Revise
Old Models
Bichronous Learning
Asynchronous Online First
Prioritize Student Choice
Adaptable Instruction
Instructor Workload
What new approaches to blended learning have you implemented at your institution since the pandemic?

Please post your responses in the chat.
Q&A
Blended Learning in a New World
Contact Information

Dr. Dylan Barth
djbarth@uwm.edu

Dr. Nicole Weber
nicole.weber@onlinelearning-c.org