Completing a Programmatic Alignment and Crosswalk
Jessica L. White, Ph.D.

Session Objectives

- Define curriculum crosswalk
- Learn how to complete a programmatic alignment
- Identify key themes of a programmatic alignment
- Apply curriculum development and instructional design strategies to ensure program objectives are met Project Background

- Proposal
- Description
- Goals
- Instructional Design Challenges

Instructional Design Strategies

Backwards Design

ADDIE

Competency-Based Education Model

Skills
Knowledge
Abilities
What Is a Curriculum Crosswalk?

A curriculum crosswalk is a process that cross references or aligns a course’s learning outcomes to the following:

- Academic Standards
- Technical Knowledge
- Skill Standards

Benefits of Project Completion

- All program courses fully aligned
- Groundwork laid for transitioning program to fully online, competency-based program
- Students have marketable skills and knowledge related to industry competencies
Questions

For Additional Information, Contact

Jessica L. White
jlwhite6@ncsu.edu
linkedin.com/in/drjessicalwhite
delta.ncsu.edu