Epic ID: An Escape Room Instructional Design Challenge

Online Learning Consortium Accelerate 2020 Virtual Conference
Presenters

Dr. Michelle Arnold
Assistant Professor
College of Behavioral and Community Sciences

Dr. Vanessa Marasco
Coordinator of Clinical Education
Instructor
College of Education

Heidi Schroeder
Learning Designer III
Innovative Education
Session Objectives

Apply critical thinking skills to instructional design challenges

Identify project management strategies for course design, development and Faculty to Instructional Designer communication.

Collaborate with colleagues to improve current instructional design processes.
Your Challenge: Escape Room

4 Digit Code

Volunteers?
Build Relationships

Needs Assessment & Weekly Meetings

Large Project in Short Time Frame

TRUST

Identify project management strategies for course design, development and faculty to ID communication.
Collaborate with colleagues to improve current instructional design processes.
Identify project management strategies for course design, development and faculty to ID communication.
Ensure Quality

- Quality Matters Rubric
- Emergency Remote Checklist
- Periodic

Collaborate with colleagues to improve current instructional design processes.
Thank you for attending Epic ID!

We hope you enjoyed the session and are taking away some fresh ideas and perspectives as you collaborate for online course design and development projects.

Resources shared in this presentation can be downloaded:

Feel free to contact us with any questions or concerns!

Dr. Michelle Arnold
mlarnold@usf.edu

Dr. Vanessa Marasco
vmarasco@usf.edu

Heidi Schroeder
schroederh@usf.edu