A bridge to success: Connecting student engagement to student motivation through educational technology and instructional strategies in the online learning environment.

OLC Innovate Virtual Conference
June 25, 2020
Presented by
Kristen Walley, Assistant Professor-School of Education
Julie Lawrence, Academic Dean
Explore how instructional strategies and educational technology intended to foster student engagement in the online environment align to the learner’s goal orientation.

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:
- Recommend embedded educational technology based on varying goal orientation.
- Determine opportunities in online courses to elicit engagement using educational technology.
- Select educational technology to build a community of learners in online courses.
What is engagement?

PollEv.com/jlawrence
Engagement

Community and collaboration
- Exchange of ideas and knowledge
- Fosters a sense of community

Motivated for action
- Real-world application
- Sparks interest

Social learning
- Peer-to-peer and peer-to-instructor interactions
- Building knowledge
Engagement
Community of Inquiry Framework (Garrison, 2017)
Building Community
Approach and Avoidance Goals
In what ways might this information influence your practice?

Join the conversation using the QR code, link, or chatbox.
Educational Technology

Engagement

Community of Inquiry

Goal Orientation

Presenters

Kristen Walley kristen.walley@rasmussen.edu
Julie Lawrence julie.lawrence@rasmussen.edu
References

Evaluate Sessions and Win!

- Download and open OLC Conferences mobile app
- Navigate to specific session to evaluate
- Select “Evaluate Session” on session details screen (located under session type and track)
- Complete session evaluation*

*Each session evaluation completed (limited to one per session) = one contest entry

Five (5) $25 gift cards will be awarded
Must submit evals using the OLC Conferences mobile app or website