Some Takeaways!

• You’ll look at your LMS differently!
• You’ll see how the 3Es actually work in a real Excelsior course: IND203: Introduction to Professional Ethics.
• You’ll trust students with their own education and ethics.
• You’ll experience first-hand knowledge of the 3E’s.
Learning Theory: Three E’s

Engage

You will learn by connecting new information with prior learning, creating new meaning as a result.

Evaluate

Evaluate activities will expose you to more high-stakes assessments where you can demonstrate your abilities to meet the learning outcomes.

Evolve

Evolve gives you an opportunity to reflect on your learning, encouraging you to connect what you've learned with your prior experiences and future goals.

Joyce’s Interview

“Recently, one of my long-time clients, a man named Joe, brought in his new puppy Marty, a soft little four-month-old Beagle. Marty had a split lip on the right side of his face, and his right eye was bruised and swollen almost shut.”

Relationship: Affinity

My readers are my clients.
I have a duty to the truth.
If I write well, then I will bring good to the world.
Because of these virtues:
I will always be honest with my readers, even when it costs me.
I will always care about my readers, even when it's hard.

I am a writer.
SmartArt

Here’s how to do it:

Ask yourself these questions:

• What is your profession?
• Who are your clients?
• Why do they trust you?
• What do you do in order to earn and maintain their trust?

• Experiment with the library of SmartArt templates and choose the one that best captures you!
