What is a PechaKucha?

PechaKucha (Japanese for "chit chat") is a world-renowned storytelling format where a presenter has 400 seconds to tell the story (20 slides for 20 seconds each), with only visuals guiding the way.

All images were from pexels.com except for slide 18 originally created by Robin Leung.
Questions?

How do you use technology to support your teaching and learning practices?