What can you expect from this Educate and Reflect session?

- A Conversation on the Concepts
  - Importance of global educational and cross-cultural learning environments to develop global leaders of the 21st century.

- Experience the shared research results and impact of social media and other digital technology integration in two real-life global learning environments:
  - Online African Centered Educational programming at Maji Shujaa Academy and
  - U.S. to Uganda global collaboration project included Ugandan May Christian College Nkumba students and the U.S. Sims-Fayola International Academy Denver, Colorado

- Adaptive Tools to Balance Your Online Instructing Strategy
  - Global connectivity and digital technology tools to provide opportunities for the development of future global leaders (Skype, Zoom, WebEx, Screen-O-Matic, Google Docs, Ning, YouTube).
  - Global Intercultural Online Collaborative Learning Model (GIOCL); a framework to guide the design of a cross-cultural online collaborative learning environment and activities.

- Application – An Interactive Zoom Encounter
  - An interactive Zoom encounter to demonstrate creative learning and connecting global learners.
  - Individual Reflection: Your personal plan to reshape destiny by developing global leaders one digital connect at a time!

Join our live Zoom Session with your personal device.
RESHAPING DESTINY: DEVELOPING GLOBAL LEADERS ONE DIGITAL CONNECT AT A TIME

2019 OLC Innovate  Education Reimagined | Thursday April 04, 2019

Dr. Karen Lynne-Daniels Ivy, Associate Dean Forbes School of Business & Technology

Dr. Beverly Jackson  CEO and Curriculum Leader of the Maji Shujaa Online Academy

Application – Individual Reflection

Q1: What are your views on the importance of global educational and cross-cultural learning environments to develop global leaders of the 21st century? Please explain.

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Q2: How do you plan to apply digital tools to develop global leaders one digital connect at a time?

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Q3: What are some challenges you may encounter and resources you will need to execute your plan?

_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Much success as you reshape destiny for current and future global leaders one digital connect at a time!!

Dr. Karen Ivy and Dr. Beverly Jackson