Virtual Leadership Support Mechanisms Beyond the Academy of the Arts

Innovative Studio Design Thinking Challenge

Dr. Tracy L.F. Worley, MFA, PMP, CNC
Adjunct Associate Professor
University System of Maryland
Agenda

The Challenge
The Brainstorm
The Efficacy Theory
Solution Building
The Application
Introduction

- Contextualizing the interaction of obstacles faced by women of color through the lenses of gender, ethnicity, and culture
- Identifying problems, crafting solutions, and building self-efficacy thereby
The Challenge

To identify virtual support mechanisms in the traditional academy that can extend to industry and reinforce the development and professional leadership success of women, and particularly African American women, in the academy of the arts.
What are the leadership challenges for women in your artistic discipline?
What are the challenges to women, and women of color in particular, being equitably engaged in leadership roles (director, producer) in major box office cinema?
The Efficacy Theory
The Efficacy Theory
Solution Building

Breakouts (20 minutes)

- Process and refine the concepts and practices supporting the solution
The Application

Summarizing Solutions

Personal Application
Thank You

Dr. Tracy L.F. Worley, MFA, PMP, CNC
University System of Maryland

tracy.worley@faculty.umd.edu
Evaluate Sessions and Win!

- Navigate to specific session to evaluate
- Select “Evaluate Session” on session details screen
  - Complete session evaluation*

*Each session evaluation completed (limited to one per person per session) = one contest entry. Five (5) $25 gift cards will be awarded.